COVID-19 INSTRUCTIONS

We are happy to host all of you at the upcoming ATIDMUN VII conference.

However, in order to make sure we all remain as safe as possible, we ask you and your delegates to please meet the following guidelines:

All students, advisors and staff should hold a VALID Green Pass (Tav Yarok), according to the Ministry of Health's most recent instructions:

- The latest vaccine date (2nd or 3rd) was no longer than 6 months ago;*
- PCR test performed in "KUPAT HOLIM" OR "PIKUD HAOREF" not earlier than the 22nd of November;*
- Recovered from Covid-19 in the past 6 months;*
 - Recovered from Covid-19 longer than 6 months, but received the 1st vaccine in the last 6 months;*

For most recent instructions of the Ministry of Health see the link attached: <https://corona.health.gov.il/directives/green-pass-info/>

- On the day of the conference, everyone should open their Green Pass documents/barcode before arriving at the registration stands to prevent crowding and long lines.*

Important:

- those who hold IDs- are to show them with their green pass,*
- those who don't yet have an ID- must know their ID number in advance (in order for us to confirm the validity of their green passes).*

Please note that as governmental guidelines change, we will adjust ours in order to comply with them. Moreover, we urge all of your delegates who have not informed us of any dietary concerns, shirts' and hoodie sizes to do so ASAP. Orders are placed, and no changes will be accepted after November 3rd. If you have any questions regarding our policies, please feel free to contact us, we will gladly assist you.

Hoping to see you all soon, and wish us a fruitful and safe conference.

A LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY GENERALS

Dear delegates, Advisors, Staff and Chairs,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the fourth iteration of the Atid Model United Nations Conference.

This year, we will have 10 different committees, each debating two controversial and urgent global issues. In AtidMUN VII, delegates will be able to discuss and find solutions to the conflict in the Democratic Republic of Congo, fight climate change and institute a constant supply of renewable energy sources, combat the illicit arms trade on the dark web, and even debate the question of Arab Unity.

The seventh iteration of ATIDMUN, thanks to the many members of our devoted secretariat and chairs, will not only provide the delegates with the highest academic standards possible but will also provide the most entertaining and fun experience in MUN to date. We have a variety of activities that will surely be a reward for your long and fruitful debating sessions.

This conference has always held a special place in our hearts, but this year it stands as a beacon of hope for the whole MUN community in Israel. This conference is one of the first face-to-face conferences in almost two years, reminding us that even the darkest times are just momentary and will eventually pass away.

A LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY GENERALS

Since two years have passed since we last saw you all, many of the faces we are seeing here today are new. Welcome, we hope this conference will meet all of your expectations. But to all delegates, whether you're newbies or veterans, if this is your first conference ever or just the first face-to-face MUN event, remember - raise your placards high, smile to all, show off your outfit, and trust yourself. Get into the shoes of the country representative, and let the MUN spirit capture and help you throughout the turmoil of these two days.

We truly believe that this conference will be unforgettable to us all and will relight our MUN spirit and mind. We will do everything within our power in order to ensure that before and during the conference, you will enjoy our efforts. For any further inquiries, you are more than welcome to contact any member of the secretariat or a chair.

*Sincerely,
Lishy Hason & Shira Israeli
Secretary Generals of AtidMUN VII, 2021*

A LETTER FROM ATIDMUN PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Dear Delegates, Advisors, Staff, and GUESTS!

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the 7th ATIDMUN Conference hosted by the Atid Lod High School for Excellence and Scientific Leadership in the Community.

ATIDMUN is the springboard for you, delegates, juniors and seniors, beginners and more experienced, to step up to the roles of world leaders, and to find the solutions to real-world problems. The ultimate question facing us is HOW? Through working together as a team, thinking critically and creatively, demonstrating tolerance, mutual respect for others' ideas, and demonstrating the ability to see other perspectives; opening your minds to alternative solutions, becoming active citizens of the global village where Christians, Muslims, and Jews can be collaborative problem solvers and active leaders in our communities.

The ATIDMUN VII team has been honored by your participation at the conference. You will leave the conference with global awareness and a newfound passion for public speaking. This experience would not be possible without the assistance of our amazing staff teams under the leadership of ATIDMUN VII Secretary Generals Shira Israeli and Lishay Hason.

*Sincerely Yours,
Bronislava Kabakovitch

A LETTER FROM THE SENIOR ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Dear delegates, Advisors, Staff, and Chairs,
It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 4th iteration of the Atid Model United Nations Conference.

AtidMUN started nearly three years ago as a vision of both faculty members and students in the school, as part of the wonderful MUN renaissance that was (and still is) sweeping across Israel. AtidMUN was founded with the intention of providing the highest academic standard for all delegates, be they experienced or beginners. We believe that academic excellence begins with the Chairs, and so, we have selected only those most qualified for the job. As a result, we boast a team of highly experienced Chairs, ranging from high schoolers to graduates – all with the intention of providing the best experience for you, the delegates.

The topics discussed in the committees this year are some of the most controversial in their field. While there are many who choose to shy away from controversy, claiming that some issues are unsolvable, it is our firm belief that we must not do so – we must challenge ourselves to do just that. Solving the unsolvable, that is the true essence of diplomacy.

We are, first and foremost, an educational platform. Creating a true evaluation of these topics in the world we live in today. It is our hope that we can change the political discourse of today, and that can only be achieved by working together.

Here's to an unforgettable conference.

*Sincerely,
Roi Nachlieli
Academic Advisor of AtidMUN VII 2021*

A LETTER FROM THE SENIOR ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Dear Delegates, Chairs, and Advisors,

I am extremely happy, and proud to see AtidMUN back at an in-person conference! The last year was a hard one. Online video classes replaced in-person interaction. Online conferences, while fun and engaging, didn't have the same magic. Now, in person, MUN is back (though with limitations) and I'm very excited to see the heights we will reach next.

Since I started training the Atid Lod Model UN team, I have seen them grow from an active society into a multi-leveled Model UN program that trains students on multiple classes of students, hosts a conference, and sends successful delegations abroad. It is an honor to be part of it and it is as gratifying as it is impressive.

Hosting a Model UN conference, with all its checkboxes, is not an easy task. The secretariat and host team have worked tirelessly in every aspect from academics to logistics. The growth of the conference is a testament to the efforts of all involved.

I wish all the participants of this year's AtidMUN a positive and challenging growth experience. I wish the chairs clarity of sight and a read of the room that will make all delegates feel their work was seen and appreciated. May the mentors guide well and the advisers be supportive and helpful. Finally, for the day after AtidMUN, I wish us all, students and faculty, a good year of Model UN. May the skills Model UN develops be used for good and may they bring satisfaction and benefit beyond the world of MUN.

Have a great ATIDMUN 2021!

Sincerely,
Daniel Gindis

One other non-P5 member may join them (P5+1 Caucus).	No	No	Chair + Unanimous agreement of all P5 members, regardless of the opinion of the rest of the committee.

1 Points

1.1 Point of Personal Privilege

Points of Personal Privilege are used in case a personal discomfort impairs your ability to participate in the debate. It may be raised if you wish to change the temperature of the room or to ask a delegate to raise his voice. Points of Personal Privilege may interrupt the speaker only in the latter case.

1.2 Point of Parliamentary Inquiry

Points of Parliamentary Inquiry are used in case you have a question to the chairs concerning the Rules of Procedure. It may be raised at any time; however, it must not interrupt a speaker.

1.3 Point of Order

A Point of Order may be raised in case you feel that the Rules of Procedure are being violated. If the chairs are ignoring Rules of Procedure, you may approach the Secretariat. A Point of Order may be raised at any time; however, it must not interrupt a speaker.

1.4 Motion to Approach the Chairs

A Motion to Approach the Chairs is used in case you have a question which doesn't interest the entire committee; this may be a personal question or a clarification on any written material sent to the chairs. It may be raised at any time; however, it must not interrupt a speaker.

As a general note, you may approach the Chairs or any member of the Secretariat on any personal issue you might have at any time, so long as it does not interfere with a speaker.

2 Motions

2.1 Motion to Open Debate

This motion formally opens the conference. It is the first motion of every committee; without it, debate cannot begin. Moreover, it is used to resume debate after a Motion to Suspend Debate. The first matter of business in any committee would be deciding between Topic A and Topic B. This means that at the start of the first committee session, following this motion, the chairs will entertain 2 speeches for each topic; a vote shall follow on the question of 'Should the committee discuss Topic A?'. If the motion passes, the committee will begin with Topic A; if not, it will begin with Topic B. This motion does not require seconds or voting, it is at the discretion of the chairs.

2.2 Motion to Entertain Opening Statements

This motion can be presented as the first order of business in each topic (both A and B), and will allow each delegate to read out their opening statements regarding the topic. The speaking time will be 60 seconds, and the delegates will approach the floor alphabetically. This motion does not require seconds or voting, it is at the discretion of the chairs.

2.3 Motion to Open the Speakers' List

This motion formally introduces the Speakers' List. Once the Speakers' List has been opened, delegates may add themselves to it by sending a note to the chairs. The speaking time at HolyLandMUN is 90 seconds; a delegate may use this time to say anything, so long as it is relevant to the topic of the committee. Anytime there are no motions on the floor, the next delegate on the Speakers' List takes the floor.

A delegate may yield his time to one of the following:

2.3 Motion to Open the Speakers' List

1. The Chairs, in which case, the delegate will take his seat and his time will automatically end;
2. Any delegate present, in which case the delegate chosen may choose to accept or decline the yield;
3. Questions, in which case the floor would be open to questions; delegates who have such will raise their placards and be selected by the chairs. Time runs only during the response.

This motion does not require seconds or voting, it is at the discretion of the chairs.

2.4 Motion for a Moderated Caucus

This motion allows the committee to begin formal debate on any subject within the topic of the committee. When stated, a delegate must mention the overall time, the individual speaking time and the subject of the Caucus. This can be done in the following fashion: "A motion for a ten-minute, one minute speaking time Moderated Caucus on the subject of X"; a shorter way to introduce the same motion would be "A motion for a 10/1 Moderated Caucus on the subject of X".

During a Moderated Caucus, the delegates will alter in addressing the subject of the Caucus. Any delegate wishing to speak will raise his placard after the current speaker has finished; the speaker will rise in his own seat and address the committee. There are no Points of Information or yielding of any sort during a Moderated Caucus. Once the overall time of the Moderated Caucus has elapsed, the floor will be open to motions.

This motion requires a simple majority to pass.

*A Moderated Caucus may be referred to as a "Mod" for short.

2.5 Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus

This motion allows the delegates to engage in informal debate. Informal debate is not bound by Rules of Procedure, and allows the delegates to move freely throughout the room and interact with each other. An Unmoderated Caucus is primarily used for the building of coalitions and drafting of documents; approaching the Chairs during this time is also permitted. A Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus must include a time limit: "A Motion for a 15-minute Unmoderated Caucus". During the Unmoderated Caucus, delegates may approach the Chairs for an extension; an Unmoderated Caucus, including any extensions given, may not eclipse 20 minutes. Once the overall time of the Unmoderated Caucus has elapsed, the floor will be open to motions. This motion requires a simple majority to pass. *An Unmoderated Caucus may be referred to as an "UnMod" for short.

2.6 Motion to Introduce a Written Proposal

This motion enables a delegate to introduce a Draft Resolution to the committee. After this motion is approved by the committee, the sponsors of the Written Proposal (Either a Draft Resolution or an amendment) will select one delegate to present it, reading it in full to the committee. This motion requires a simple majority to pass. However, it may be immediately granted due to Chair discretion. (For more information on Draft Resolutions and Amendments, see sections 3 and 4 in the following pages)

2.7 Motion for a Panel of Authors

After a Draft Resolution has been introduced, delegates may motion for a Panel of Authors. The delegate must state the length of the desired Panel of Authors. In a Panel of Authors, 2-3 of the sponsors and signatories of the Draft Resolution will explain its rationale and then take questions from the committee, which the chairs will pick. This motion requires a simple majority to pass.

2.8 Motion to Suspend Debate

This motion suspends debate; it is used before scheduled breaks (i.e. Lunch). This motion does not require seconds or voting, it is at the discretion of the chairs.

2.9 Motion to Close Debate

This motion will end all debate and the committee will immediately enter voting procedures. The doors will be barred and all those not present in the committee will not be able to participate in the voting process. This motion requires a 2/3 majority to pass.

3 Resolution Writing

All writing must be done on the premises of the conference, after the beginning of the first committee session. Writing done beforehand will not be admissible.

3.1 Working Papers

A Working Paper is the first draft of a Resolution. It can be written throughout the conference by any delegate; however, Working Papers cannot be introduced to the committee (in formal debate), they have to become Draft Resolutions first.

3.2 Draft Resolutions

Any Working Paper that was approved by the Chairs is a "Draft Resolution". A Working Paper may be submitted to the Chairs for approval once it follows these criteria:

- a. It has between 2 and 5 sponsors;
- b. It has at least 1/4 quorum sponsors and signatories.

Chairs can send the Working Paper back to the delegate if the level of writing is insufficient; in such cases, they will provide feedback so as to help the delegate in improving it.

3.3 Resolutions

Once a Draft Resolution is voted upon and approved, it becomes the official Resolution of the committee. Only one Resolution may be adopted per committee.

4 Amendments

4.1 Friendly Amendments

A friendly amendment must be approved by each of the sponsors of the Draft Resolution before being sent in to the Chairs. The Chairs will then enact these changes without committee debate.

4.2 Unfriendly Amendments

Any amendment which did not receive the approval of each of the sponsors of the Draft Resolution prior to being sent to the Chairs is considered 'unfriendly' and must be voted upon by the committee. An unfriendly amendment must have at least 1/4 quorum signatories in order to be sent to the chairs (not including the delegate).

5 Voting

5.1 Voting on Amendments

Voting on amendments will take place prior to voting on Draft Resolutions. They will be voted upon by the order submitted.

5.2 Voting on Draft Resolutions

These following motions may be presented before the start of substantive voting:

5.2.1 Motion to Reorder Draft Resolutions

This motion allows the committee to change the order Draft Resolutions. After it passes, delegates will motion for a new order; these new orders will be voted upon by the order in which they were presented. If there is no majority for any new order, the old order will remain. This motion requires a simple majority to pass.

5.2.2 Motion to Vote by Roll Call

Roll Call vote will require every country, in order, to speak its vote out loud (Yes, No, Abstain or Pass). This motion requires seconds and is up to Chairs discretion.

5.2.3 Motion to Vote Clause by Clause

A Clause by Clause vote will enable delegates to vote on each clause of the resolution separately. Clauses that fail will be stricken out; the revised resolution will be voted upon afterwards.

This motion requires a simple majority to pass.

6 Special Rules of Procedure by Committee

6.1 Arab League

6.1.1 Double Delegation

Delegations to the Arab League committee are double delegations, meaning that there are 2 delegates representing each member states.

6.1.2 Speaking in Formal Debate

Once a delegation has received speaking rights from the chairs, only one of the delegates representing the country may speak. It is up to the delegation to decide who shall speak at any given time.

6.1.3 Voting

Each delegation will have one vote; delegates must agree between themselves as to how to cast their vote.

6.2 G20 Council

6.2.1 Representation

Delegates in this committee represent Heads of State. They can speak either in the first or third person and may address their peers using the respective name of the leader (i.e 'Macron' for France and 'Merkel' for Germany).

6.2.2 Voting

Procedural voting requires a simple majority; substantive voting, however, requires unanimous support.

6.3 United Nations Security Council (UNSC)

6.3.1 Permanent Members

The Permanent Members of the Council are the People's Republic of China, the French Republic, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom and the United States of America. They may be referred to as the 'P5'.

6.3.2 Quorum

There must be at least 9 member of the Council present at all times. Debate will cease if the quorum is not filled.

6.3.3 Voting

Procedural votes require at least 9 members in favor (regardless of the amount of delegates in the room); Substantive votes require at least 9 members including all Permanent Members of the Council.

6.3.4 Motion to Make Vote Substantive

Before a procedural vote has begun, any Permanent Member of the Council may raise a Motion to make the Vote Substantive. If passed, the vote will become substantive rather than procedural, and all rules of a substantive vote will apply. This motion requires a second by another Permanent Member. If two or more Permanent Members object to it, this motion will fail.

6.3.5 P5 Caucus

Once the floor is open to motions, any Permanent Member of the Council may raise a motion for a 'P5 Caucus'. The delegate must specify the time of the motion. If passed, the room will enter an Unmoderated Caucus during which the Permanent Members will step outside of the Council Chamber and discuss amongst themselves in private. The Permanent Members may decide to invite a non-P5 member out with them; in that case, the Permanent delegate must raise a motion for a P5+1 Caucus, and specify the delegate he wishes to add. There are no P5+2 Caucuses.

This motion requires the unanimous agreement of all P5 members, regardless of the opinion of the rest of the Council.

6.4 Constitutional Convention

6.4.1 Representation

Delegates in this committee represent both their respective states and their characters. They may speak either in the first or third person, and may address their peers using their respective titles (i.e for James Madison, either 'Mr. Madison' or the 'Delegate of Virginia').

6.4.2 Voting

Procedural voting requires a simple majority to pass; substantive voting requires a simple majority of the states, members of each state need to agree upon a vote before they can cast it as one.

6.4.3 Sub-Committees

During the second session, the room will be split by the chairs into 5 different sub-committees: Committee of Representation, Committee of State Commitments, Committee of the Economy, Committee of Foreign Affairs, and the Committee of Internal Affairs. When the Convention is not split into sub-committees, it is named the Committee of the Whole.

6.4.4 Writing

Writing may not be done during the first session, and may only begin in the sub-committees. Each of the members of the sub-committees will sponsor their committee's draft Constitution (which leads to 5 in total), all of which will be debated within the Committee of the Whole during the third and fourth sessions, and merged into one.

KEY TERMS

- Committee: The building blocks of the MUN conference. Each committee has its own area of specialty and the motions discussed in it are taken from that area.
- Chair: The one that is responsible for the entire committee affairs (For example, they choose who is allowed to speak and when). Usually there are two chairs in each committee.
- Delegates: Students who participate in the conference. Each student is a representative of a certain country that his/her school was assigned to in a certain committee.
- Perambulatory Clauses: Reasons why the committee is doing what is set out in the resolution.
Operative Clauses- the policy the delegate would want to see implemented in the resolution.
- Sponsor: Delegates who significantly contributes to the draft resolution.
- Signatory: Delegates who agree with a draft resolution or want to see it discussed.
- Have the Floor: To have the right to speak in debate.
- Decorum: A call for quiet and order issued by chairs.
- Lobbying: The act of talking with other delegates and discussing clauses and amendments, in the attempt of reaching an agreement on certain ideas and support for one's clauses and/or amendments.

KEY TERMS

- Moderated Caucus: A debate format that allows delegates to make short comments on a specific sub-issue. Typically, delegates who are interested in speaking will raise up their placards and the Chairs will call on delegates to speak one at a time. In order to move into a moderated caucus, the motion must include the overall speaking time, the time per speaker, and the sub-issue to be discussed. Example: Italy motions for a 5-minute moderated caucus with 30-second speaking time per delegate for the purpose of discussing public awareness campaigns about LGBT rights.
- Unmoderated Caucus (or Lobbying Time): a debate format in which delegates can leave their seats to go and talk to others freely and informally. This is usually when delegates find allies and work on draft resolutions. In order to move into an unmoderated caucus, the motion must include the overall caucus time and preferably the purpose of the unmoderated caucus. Example: Senegal motions for an unmoderated caucus for 10 minutes to complete draft resolutions.
- Working Paper: the document written by countries in the committee. In this document, the actions that the committee could potentially take are elaborated on. After a proper motion, it may be introduced as a draft resolution.
- Draft Resolution: The document consisting of the detailed actions countries wish to take as a committee on a certain issue after it has been approved by the chairs. It may be amended and voted on. Only one draft resolution will pass in a committee if any at all.
- Panel of Authors: An opportunity for two or three of the sponsors or signatories to explain the rationale of the draft resolution, as well as take questions from other members of the committee. It may be motioned for only after the draft resolution has been introduced and read by the chairs.

WRITING RESOLUTIONS

A resolution has three main parts: the heading, the pre-ambulatory clauses, and the operative clauses.

1. The Heading contains four pieces of information: the committee name, the sponsors, the signatories, and the topic (not necessarily in that order depending on each individual conference's rules).

Preamble Clauses - Clauses which give a justification to the resolution and explain its rationale. The preamble of a draft resolution states the reasons for which the committee is addressing the topic and highlights past international action on the issue. Each clause has a present participle (called a preambulatory phrase) and ends with a comma.

Preambulatory clauses can include:

- References to the UN Charter;
- Citations of past UN resolutions or treaties on the topic under discussion;
- Citations of past UN resolutions or treaties on the topic under discussion;
- Mentions of statements made by the Secretary-General or a relevant UN body or agency;
- Recognition of the efforts of regional or nongovernmental organizations in dealing with the issue; and General statements on the topic, its significance and its impact.

Operative Clauses - identify the actions or recommendations made in a resolution. Each operative clause begins with a verb (called an operative phrase) and ends with a semicolon. Operative clauses should be organized in a logical progression, with each containing a single idea or proposal, and are always numbered. If a clause requires further explanation, bulleted lists set off by letters or roman numerals can also be used. After the last operative clause, the resolution ends in a period.

Both operative and preamble clauses begin with preamble or operative phrases.

Every line – even blank lines and skipped lines are numbered - as there is a very precise set of procedures for submitting resolutions. Students are required to adhere to these procedures.

- Aim for a maximum of 5 perambulatory clauses in any resolution
- Aim for a maximum of 7 operative clauses in any resolution
- Aim for a maximum of 3 sub-operative clauses in any operative clause

Model UN resolutions are written according to a very strict format -- but it isn't as hard to do as it may look. To help delegates master resolution-writing, there are several detailed instruction files available from TIMEMUN.

Use the format of the resolution as a checklist, making sure that you covers all required parts of the resolution and that your vocabulary is used correctly.
